It has been stated that other matters, more serious than even this, will be brought before that Court. It is said that Gen'l Scott in his correspondence with the War Department, has been uncourteous in the extreme, and that this will also be enquired into. The Court of Inquiry will, however, soon place the whole matter before the public.

The Married Woman's Private Medical Companion, by Dr. A. M. Matriceau, Professor of Diseases of Women, 3d edition, 18mo, pp. 250 price $1. 25,000 copies sold in three months. The great demand for this most important work, of which thousands are sold,) has compelled the ssue of another edition. It is intended especially for the married, as it discloses important secrets which should be known to them particularly Here every female can discover the causes, symp oms, and the most efficient remedies, and most certain mode of cure, in every complaint to which her sex is subject.

It is an important question to the married why is that we behold so many married females sickly, debilitated, and prostrated, as also the causes. and whether they are susceptible of remedy. They will here find these important matters, connected with discoveries in medical and physiological science, which meets that question

This work is designed to be in the hands of every wife and mother who has a regard for her own health and welfare, as well as that of her husband The revelations contained in its pages have already proved a blessing to thousands. To those yet unmarried, but contemplating marriage, or, perhaps, hesitating as to the proprie ty of incurring the responsibilities attendant upon it, the importance of being possessed of the revelations contained in these pages so intimately in-

Copies will be sent by mail free of postage. On the receipt of one dollar, the " Married Woman's Private Medical Companion" will be sent free of postage, to any part of the United States.
